

At first I Thank you for your interest to my exclusive bonus package for Frank kern's Mass Control .I'll like to offer you the best bonus package for Mass Control considering that you really serious to make some cash online and taking Internet Marketing as your profession like me.

If you don't mind I'll like to introduce myself to you within some lines. I am an Indian girl and I've taken my graduation in Physics but from my childhood the marketing thingy attracted me that is why after graduation I decided to do MBA in marketing , Advertising and communication. Within my course curriculum I was introduced to Internet marketing for the first time and it attracted me immensely. But language was a main problem for me. I was educated in a vernacular medium and English is my second language and the whole IM world is concentrated around English speaking countries.

But the original truth is that marketing is not coded with any specific language. The scope and techniques of Marketing is same world wide. I started Affiliate marketing immediately after my post graduation and Am I successful? In the next report you'll see some instance of stunning Affiliate success of me.

Now , coming to the first bonus from me and considering that I hate CRAP as much you hate it I am not going to offer you some garbage ebook/software etc. What about Frank Kern's choice himself like many other guru's? Do you want to know from where the big guns of Internet Marketing pump out so many products with fancy sales letter after every week? Considering you are going to take Frank's coaching of Internet Marketing and you should not worry about marketing/sales part in future the only requirement left to complete your IM marketing and money making effort is your hands on some good products. From my experience of long successful IM careers and testing numerous PLR membership site , I can ensure you that Unselfishmarketer.com is the best one. Although it is costly [$50/month] but the quality of the products and their choice of niches is really GENIOUS

Now , my offer to you is that 6 months free access to <http://unselfishmarketer.com/> Worth's $47 X 6 = $282 .

Hi JayKay,

2008 Jan. 4

I have only just joined a few days ago so have not made any cash from THE VAULT goodies just yet.

I just wanted to share the reason I signed up.

I found your page through a recommendation from one of your affiliates Rick McCauley (cheers Rick) and was amazed that you show every product you have on the sales pages.

What made me buy was the fact that I saw in the products list 3 products that I had bought before I found your site, and those three products combined cost me $80 which of course is nearly twice as much as the monthly membership.

THIS IS A NO BRAINER.....

I have probably already downloaded thousands$$$$$ worth of material and have not even touched 10% of the members area.

If you can keep this level of service up as you go towards 1000 members this will be the greatest resource online for newcomers like me and more experienced guys.

Please keep up the good work and good luck

All the best

Hi JayKay

I can't begin to tell you how fantastic I think your site is. I have never ever had a moments thought that I was wasting money. Sometimes I feel downright guilty because we get so much for so little.

From customer service to the products you provide you are incredible. I'm going to be with you for a very long time!!!

Thank you,
Jan :-)

Hi JayKay

I have used your vault know for a few months, it has helped me build my list.

I get some really good products to resell, which I have sold some.

Mostly though I love all the adsense sites you provide they are great.

Thanks for all the effort you and your staff put into this site, I appreciate it and am glad to be one of your members :-)

JayKay,

Being your #1 fan has made it too easy for me to become your #1 Affiliate. Since I believe so completely in your ability to provide EVERY possible product available, it's very easy for me to honestly convince my Subscribers that they MUST become an Unselfish Marketer member or spend the rest of their lives spending money needlessly!

But what impresses me even more than getting every product on the market just because I pay my miniscule membership fee, is that you're never satisfied to leave it at that. You're constantly increasing the value of your site by adding more and more services, memberships, and who knows what might be next now that the Unselfish Marketer is an entire year old.

Good Luck and keep up the Award-Winning work!

Subject: Did you fall on your head?

Hi there

I'm sure you fell out of your crib when you were a baby... right on you head! Are you NUTS to give people access for all of the stuff in the Vault for practically nothing?

What's wrong with you?

Don't you know that gurus make money by selling old rehashed stuff to unsuspecting newbies?

You CAN'T give people all this value! It's not NORMAL!

Hi JayKay

I am convinced that your site is absolutely the best of it's type on the web!

The sheer quantity of material, along with the high frequency of updates is terrific. I also appreciate the large easy to read graphics, and the general presentation, as well as your honest comments on the scripts.

Keep up the great work!

You ARE Something, JayKay!

Hello JayKay!...

I have been online for a while now but in all this time I have "Never" come across a site that not only offers so much, but also makes you feel like you belong! You offer so much, that I am just not able to keep up with you!...:) That is truly saying something as I do think of myself as a download junkie!

Hey! When I first joined I actually got lost! You have so much I was like a child in a candy store!...hehehehe...

I thought I had seen it all, but when I logged in this evening you completely blew me away! I have been looking at some links sites for some time but "Never" ever thought I would ever get one, as the good ones do cost a lot...

I just finished downloading LinksBRO (JayKay Blurb: Added May 28, 2007) and it is just so AWESOME! I also watched the video's and must say I am well impressed!

I just want to tell you "Thank YOU, JayKay!" Thank you so much for all that you do!

If the Good Lord is willing, I shall be around for a while! I will never see 2031, but I shall not leave willingly!

Kindest Regards...

Shirley

JayKay – you have restored my faith in Internet Marketers! To be honest I was starting to get a little jaded with all the Mega Offer emails that never really delivered.

You deliver time after time ... and to cap it all you're human too! Not many of the 'big guns' would bother to respond to emails personally ... but you do.

It's hard for newbies (and experienced online marketers) to find a genuine offer ... I reckon The Vault (and all your other offers too) are just that ... GENUINE and they are amazing vale to boot!

I have emailed my lists and have recommended they check you out really soon.

Thanks again JayKay – it's a pleasure to deal with you.

JayKay,

When you said you would over deliver I thought "Heard it before" well after becoming a member I was eating humble pie!

I have been a reseller for numerous years now, spent far too much money on dud products, joined memberships that never backed up the salespage, even struggled to come across the newest products around, your vault is the answer to all my problems!

Here is an example, the month before I joined the Unselfish Marketer I spent in the region of $1000 on products to be added to my store, then came across JayKay's offer, my jaw almost hit the floor when I saw that the products I had just purchased were already inside the vault!

What impresses me the most about your vault JayKay is the speed that new products are added, unlike most membership sites who only add 5 or even 10 products a month you add products practically on a daily basis!

I am now on the verge of canceling all my other memberships that run up bills into the hundreds, and solely use Unselfish Marketer.

Not only have you saved me thousands of Dollars, but my members absolutely love the constant flow of fresh new products added practically everyday!

I will be a member until JayKay retires!

Hi JayKay,

I just wanted to say that I absolutely LOVE your website.

There is no other place on the net that keeps me as up to date on products... and all in one place too! Even in ONE folder on my hard drive where I can actually FIND things.

I see a lot of newsletters come through, with products I would like to purchase - but now I think to myself, "hmm - better go see if my favorite "Unselfish Marketer" already has that in his pockets!"

I go check the website, and I'll be darned if it ain't already there.

There has only been one time so far, that I emailed a product into the wish list, and within one day it was there! You absolutely can NOT get any better than that.

Plus your customer service has been awesome, even through a PayPal cancel (due to CC change) and one small download problem (where I accidentally closed the window out before I downloaded the product.)

So, if you're even going to put up with all of my "goofs" I don't see me canceling my membership any time soon!

Thanks for the super job, and terrific website. Count me in as one of your happiest customers!

Thanks!

Hi JayKay

I just wanted to tell you that I love this site! I pop in every second day or so to see what has been added and it is like opening a lucky packet! I feel like a kid again :-)

I have to tell you that this site has saved me so much money! I don't buy anything elsewhere anymore. If I want something and if it has not already been added (because you're like the Wish Genie - before I can say: Get it! - it is most likely already here!) then I just put in Vault Wish, and voila - like magic it appears!

I have cancelled all of my other content memberships, and I don't even go to take a look at what is on the dime sales - I know sooner or later it will get here and I just love that!

I am also just green with envy that I did not think of this first! :-)

I am happy to stay here for the next 30 years :-)

Yes What If all this wouldn't cost YOU nearly as much as $197, $127 or $77 - not even close - wouldn't that excite you?

Please allow me to sidestep for a moment here

Cost is a strange thing to think about when looking at the opportunity given. . . You can boil it down to sell just one of your NEW products ONCE a month or refer 2 members to Unselfish Marketer ONCE and your "cost" is covered, that's all there is to it :-)

Here is something that makes me think:

One man asks, "How much does it cost?"

Another man asks, "How much will it help me earn?"

Who do you think will become more successful in any business online or offline?

Please stop for 40 seconds and ponder: Which one are you . . .?

Statistics show that on average an ordinary Joe will be able to refer 2.87 people (so not even 3) to any opportunity - that's exactly why you only need to find 2 people :-) The Unselfish Marketer was built so everybody, sorry..! 1000 members can get their hands on novelty products for "no cost".

End Sidestep :-)

Now I can hear a question popping up inside your head: "WHY is JayKay doing this?"

The answer is just as short as it is sweet: Because I can . . .

Let me elaborate just a bit - I was born in Denmark but reside in Thailand. The cost of living is around 1/4 compared to industrialized countries - Wages are low, Taxes are 7-21% and the standard of my staff can easily be measured with the quality you would get from outsourcing to lets say India (hot topic). Combined with a favorable exchange rate it is possible for me to give you more than half for inviting people here + offer a 90% commission on products sold through our hands-off system + award this closed community with a monthly purchasing power of $5000+ to insure that no one would ever want to leave. . .Why on earth should they?

LOCK MY MEMBERSHIP FEE NOW!

To be fair to all other membership sites - if I was living anywhere in US or Europe I wouldn't be able to pour back more than $1700 - $2000 per month with the increased expenses I would face.

I'm off work on health grounds just now and money is only on the debit. However, every now and then I would find myself tempted by a new low, low price dime sale or a $5 or $7 deal & then I found JayKay's Unselfish Marketer.

I have never seen so much offered. You will only be held back by your time.

And as for deals, just have a peak, most things are free but then there are the $1 deals.

I have no difficulty in saying No to anything , even when cheap if I do not think it is an excellent deal but I didn't say No to this!

Plenty of things I believe I could offer on my site which is not an Internet Marketing Site.

You better have a look before you spend too much somewhere else.

Since joining your Vault membership site I've finally started seeing a profit online after several years. Why? Because I'm no longer spending all my profits buying the newest products!

I'm a "resell rights junkie" so it's really great to use YOUR wallet to buy the latest software and eBook releases to fill my addiction. Now I can ignore all those other offers I get by email because I know I'll be able to get those products in the vault without spending a fortune.

Will I Really Be Able To Make Money? There Hasn't Been a Better Time in History to Have an Internet Business!

Reality Check

Even if the number of people coming online for the first time were to dive to Z-E-R-O, statistics show there are more than 140 million current internet users in the United States alone. There are more than 20 million in the U.K. and more than 8 million in Australia.

If you could tap just a small piece of the action from these 168 million people, do you think you could make some REAL money?

I know so..! - According to Jupiter Communications, U.S. online consumers alone will spend in excess of $632 billion outside of the Internet as a direct result of research that they conduct on the Web this year! (Yup - The Vault will also offer you to sell hard copy products! For example CDs with Audio or Video tutorials)

Reality Check 2

Forrester Research predicts that online retailing will grow from $95.7 billion in 2003 to $229 billion by 2008.

Nearly 125.000 new internet users are added every day - most of them are looking for a way to make a living off the internet.

According to IDC, nearly one billion people, or about 15% of the world's population, will use the Internet end of year 2006!

Thanks to the Unselfish Marketer you can now have unlimited access to in-demand online Products, new Tools, fresh eBooks and hot Software you need to put your business on the fast track to success!

Just look at what our customers are saying....

Hello JayKay,

First, thank you so much for truly being an unselfish marketer. Since what I do (graphic design and a motivational site) is not strictly "Internet marketing," so much of what comes through my inbox is -- for me -- junk.

But since I joined here I look forward to your emails. I can honestly say that I have used more of the products I've gotten here than from any other source (free or paid) on the Internet.

Not only have I been able to use products and information for my own sites, but have been able to be a much more valuable resource for my clients. They often remark that they are amazed at how much I know about working on the Internet .

Again, thank you. Since you say you'll be around until at least 2031, I think I'll hang in with you.

JayKay and Unselfish Marketer Associates,

Thanks for answering my prayers with Unselfish Marketers! Unselfish Marketers was just what we were looking for. Now we don't have to do so much searching for the best deal, and have all the new content at our fingertips.

We no longer feel as if we are 1 to 2 weeks behind all the Big Cats who have seemed to get all the products ahead of me. Unselfish Marketers not only offers an honest bargain, it is so easy to use we are happy to offer it to our subscribers & associates.

We are certain this will dramatically increase the number of successful netrepreneurs in our Lifetime Friends Network.

Listen. I visit this site about twice a week and each time I'm blown away by what has been added. Forget about all these new product launches. If it's worth anything to you, it's most likely here.

I'm telling you - from learning tools to product to sell, everything you need to make money in your online business can be found right here. This is one of three memberships I find essential in my online business . . . each one being totally different.

I think what JayKay is doing is amazing and, if it's this good now, wait until these memberships are filled up!

Unselfish Marketer definitely applies here.

JayKay, You are doing something that is truly amazing, you are allowing those that are interested in internet marketing, but cannot afford the money it sometimes can take to learn and capitalize on the latest products and information - an opportunity unequaled on the net today.

Not only do you search out the best products and show all of us the financial "books" of what our membership fees allow you to purchase for the club, you also make the latest products affordable enough, that most everyone can get their hands on them.

You are helping to enrich the lives of hundreds of people who might not have had or at least might not have taken the leap to financial independence via the internet. Great Job! I look forward to all the great things you have in store for your members. You truly are an "Unselfish Marketer"

Hi JayKay,

I am so grateful to you!

With your beautiful scripts, I've been able to add and use autoresponders and now membership capabilities to my sites. I've been trying to do that for a long time. YOU wrote the scripts that I could use.

Not only that, Unselfish but I've been able to understand all the other scripts that have been defeating me. Because of you, I finally understand those inferior scripts, too.

May you be richly blessed and rewarded handsomely for what you have done

Yours,
Janie Squier

Hi JayKay

I really must thank you for your patience. I was suspicious that there was a problem with my site but not sure what it was. I also appreciate your generosity in setting the responder up on your site for now and offering to move it later.

It's not hard to see why you are, and will continue to be successful on the internet. Actually I'm a bit jealous, as I have long wanted to build a membership site on a par with yours but I will be very happy to promote yours and hopefully sell some of the products as you have made it so easy.

It sounds like you have some great plans in the works for future improvements too. Any other ways you can come up with to make members feel part of the family will go a long way toward future success.

I think that's part of the problem with a lot of web enterprises is they are too cold and impersonal and most people are still a pretty social bunch and require more of a feeling of belonging to something.

As for the $15, no I don't need it back. You have put in far more than $15 worth of effort so far and it's not your fault. I anticipate making far more than that back in the near future with the Vault. Have a great day and thanks again.

Best Regards

Bill
